

Any weakining of the Indiana Telephone Privacy law would be a travisty of justice. I consider sales calls of any type an invasion of privacy, in addition, they are using a service that I subscribe to and pay for to advertise thier products. This just adds insult to injury. I keep the service for emergency and private use purposes, not for the convenience of advertisers of any type.